Nancy Okai is a singer-songwriter based in Margate.

Her music is influenced by a wide range of artists including: Lianne La Havas, Daughter, and Matt Corby to name a few. Her first EP 'Daydreams' was released in 2012 and showcases her love of storytelling through song. Nancy's most recent EP 'VII' released in 2017 chronicles feelings of discovery, change, love and loss. It presents an artist exploring her sound, taking musical inspiration from time spent alongside a variety of artists over the years.

Nancy Okai's sound can be described as a mix of alternative pop and soul with a hint of folk, but she ultimately leaves it to the listener to decide.
